

Agriculture and Rural Business

Capability Statement

We pride ourselves on our understanding of the agriculture and rural business sector and our ability to offer practical solutions and support for clients to make strategic decisions.

Keeping Ahead

Farm products account for over 10 per cent of Australia's exports. With global economic tension, rising costs and sustainability issues present numerous challenges to the agriculture industry. By 2050, rising global food demand and higher prices may present big opportunities for countries who are net exporters of food.

The 'Next' Solution

Nexia is your 'next' solution providing tailored support to help your business navigate taxation issues, regulatory compliance, financial reporting/audit and providing transactional support and advice when you need it.

Our team has the relevant and current industry experience to ensure that whether our role is as an external auditor, independent expert, or we provide an in house function as a Director, Company Secretary or Advisor, our approach is commercial and adds value.

Nexia Network

Nexia Australia is part of a global network of accountancy and consultancy firms and possesses expert knowledge of the agriculture and rural business sector.

One of our strengths is that we are a solutions-based firm that adopts a consolidated team approach to solicit solutions that can help clients grow their businesses.
